READER.

Courteous Reader,

THe truly Ancient and Apostolical Faith, that (a) was once delivered unto the Saints, by our Lord Jesus Christ, and miraculously con- rmed unto us, by Signs, and Wonders, and ivers Gifts of the Holy Ghost (b), according the good pleasure of Almighty God. Which id Faith, and Practice, recorded in the holy racles of Truth, and miraculously preserved rom Age to Age, even in the darkest times of opery, and Apostacy, by the infinite Wisdom, ercy, and Goodness of God, is yet remain-g, and to be continued (c) to the end of the orld; and hath been manifested in all, or most Nations (d) for the obedience of Faith; the which Preservations of the Sacred Scriptures, or Revelation of Gospel-Light therein contained, (of which this Nation hath had a grate share, especially within this last Hundred Years) is (e) undoubtedly a very great Evidence, of the Divine Verity, and Authority of the same: And the End of God in revealing this Light of the holy Scriptures, or Gospel of Christ, is that it might be read and known of all Men, and it's our duty (f) to believe it, and thereby come through Faith, not only to have a saving, but a satisfactory knowledg of those foundation and fundamental Truths, which have been the same in all Generations; have been and shall be transmitted (g) more clear from Age to Age in the times (h) of Reformation, until that which (i) is Perfect is come, and that which is Imperfect is done away; such addition is no Innovation, but Illustration; not a new Light, but a new Sight: The Looking-Glass slurd and cleared more or less, is the same Glass. Truth wants so much of its Glory, as it is unseen: The Understanding wants so much of its perfection, as it is short in seeing thereof

And all Unbelief is Presumption, no Faith, which hinders Nourishment, and genders Humours. Grace

Grace and Glory hold proportion with the Truth. Though Knowledg may be without Grace, yet Grace is not without Knowledg, according to the measure of our approach to an exact total and adequate union of the Understanding with the truth of the Gospel; so is the glory of the Truth believed, and the communion of the Soul believing.

Now after some years profession of the Ancient way, and Truths of Christ, evidenced by the holy Oracles in Scripture, we have in most cordial manner published this little Manuel, or Orthodox Confession of our Faith, to the consideration of all sober Persons, and Religious, or well-meaning Protestants, that own the Authority and Verity of the sacred Scriptures; and by comparing of this our Confession of Faith, with the sacred Writ, we doubt not but they will then conclude, that those strange Conceptions, hard Thoughts, and Persecuting Reflections cast upon us, and spoken of us, will be much abated, if not wholly taken away, in all Sober Religious Protestants in England, or elsewhere, differing from us. And to that end, in this Cloudy Day, we might arrive at a more general Concord among our selves, in the main Points of the Protestant Religion, and take off the false, and unjust Accusations of the Papists, and all other Enemies of the Faith, once delivered to the Saints, by Christ and his Apostles, at least stop their Mouths, or prevent the Simple, of being deluded by them, in their boasting of the unity of their Pseudo, or Catachrestical Church.

As also their Discriminating the Protestants in England, and elsewhere, with the names of Hereticks, and Schismaticks; and that they have no Agreement among themselves. And the cause is (say they) because they have no true Faith, nor infallible Judge to guide and direct them. Now that we may refute these Calumnies, and false Charges of theirs against the English Protestants, we will give them, and all others, an account of our Faith grounded upon God's holy Word, written in the Scriptures of Truth, and wrought in us by his Infallible Spirit, which inspired his holy Prophets, and Apostles, to write them for our Rule, both in Faith and Practice; and as for our Agreement in matters of Faith there are but three main Opinions among our Protestant Professors in England, and they are commonly known by these three Names (viz.) Episcopalians, Presbyterians, or Independants, and Anabaptists, (but rightly called Baptists). Now the difference between these may be much in Ceremonies, or Circumstantial things, and in their Discipline, and Government of the Church.

But as for their Faith in most, or all of the main Fundamentals of the Christian Religion, they do agree; as may appear to every Impartial Reader, that shall consider the Thirty Nine Articles of the Church of England, and Mr. Beza's Confession of Faith, and the Confession of Faith signed and published by the Assembly of Divines, and many others by the Baptists in England.

Now if these several Confessions of Faith, be compared with this our Confession now published, it will appear we have endeavoured to unite with other Protestants aforesaid, in the the main Fundamental Articles of the Christian Faith. Therefore not so divided among our selves, as we are all represented to be by the slanderous Tongues of the Papists. Nor are we in any Points of Religion, so much divided among our selves (k), as the Roman Catholicks be in their Church, notwithstanding their vain boasting of Unity.

k) See Mr. Sheldon's Book of Recantation.

And for other Noval Opinions in England, we have reason to believe, that the Roman Catholicks have had a great hand in helping forward and fomenting of them, yet nevertheless by this our positive Creed, or Confession of Faith, it's most manifest to all Orthodox Christians, that we have sufficiently bore Testimony against their false Doctrines, as also against Atheism, Epicurism, the mad worshipping of Idols, and multiplicity of Gods, which the blind Heathen worship; the Hereſie of Manichæus, who held two beginnings of Good and Evil; and alſo the blaſphemous Opinions of the Anthropomorphites, who make God like unto Man (l): Which impious Idolatrous Opinions we do abominate; and thoſe wicked Opinions and Hereſies, of the Macedonians, Marcionites, Valentinians, Apelles, Apolinarians, Eunomians, Ebionites, Neſtorians, (m) Eutychians; who held that the Humane Nature after the Union was indued with the properties of the Divinity, (viz.) The Divine Nature was turned into Fleſh.

Manichees, Ubiquitarians, Socinians or Biddelians, Arians, Sabellians, Samoſatenus, Servetus, Patripaſſions, Tritheites, Anti-trinitarians, Antiſcripturians, Quakers, who have gilded over old Hereſies, and gave them new Names, the better to deceive; Seekers, or ſuch that are above Ordinances. All which ſaid Opinions and Hereſies, have been learnedly Confuted, by the Learned and Orthodox Pens of Dr. Uſher. Mr. Perkins, Dr. Owen, Dr. Hall, Mr. Tombs, Mr. Hicks, and Mr. Monck, in his little Book entituled, A Cure for the Canckering Error of the New Eutychians, and many other Orthodox Men, both Anoient and Modern, that have aſſerted the Truth in oppoſition to theſe and ſuch like abominable Heteticks, and Hereſies, too large to be inſerted here. We have alſo in this our Confeſſion of Faith, laboured to avoid the dangerous Rocks of Pelagianiſm, Antinomianiſm, Arminianiſm, and the Remonſtrants. As alſo, (as well as we may) we have endeavoured to avoid the extreams of the Superlapſarians, and Sublapſarians, and others: Which ſaid latter Opinions, we humbly conceive, and judge in many things, are inconſiſtent with God's Revealed Will in Scripture, eſpecially that of irreſpective Reprobation of particular Perſons, before they have done either Good, or Evil.

But the Socinian Doctrine, and ſuch like moſt dangerous Opinions, or Doctrines, which raze at once the foundation of the Chriſtian Religion, in that they do moſt plainly deny, a Trinity in Unity, and Unity in Trinity; Three Perſons, (viz. The Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghoſt), and one God; and ſo by conſequence, the only true object of Faith and Worſhip. As alſo, their damnable opinions in denying Chriſt's ſatisfaction by his Death, and Merits, to the Father's Juſtice for ſinful Man; as alſo the imputation of the Mediatoral Righteouſneſs of Chriſt, to every true Believer

(m) Eutyches, who thought the Union to be made ſo in the Natures, that the Humanity was abſorpt, or wholly turned into the Divinity.—— So that by that Tranſubſtantiation the Humane Nature had no longer being. liever in order to his Justification, Christ ha ving lived an holy Life, and perfectly kept or fulfilled the Law for us, without whic
we could never have been saved. All whic Opinions, and many more, in part, or in whol
we have bore our Testimony against in this ou positive Creed, or Confession of Faith. An thus it's plainly manifest to every Impartia
Reader, that we have unfeignedly from ou
Hearts, joyned issue Concordably, with th
Learned and Orthodox Pens of both the Anci ents, and Modern Protestant Christians, tha have Maintained, Professed, and Defended th truly Ancient, and Apostolick, fundamenta Faith; and do oppugne, as well as they, to ou power, according to the Word of God, th whole Army, or Legion of Heresies, tha have and do by subtil Instruments, incumbe the Christian Religion. And let not any Per sons, or Congregations that are separated from the Romish Religion, or Church of Rome, and yet notwithstanding hold some gross He resie, repugnant to any of the Foundation-Ar ticles of the Christian Faith, contained in Athanasius's, or the Apostles Creed (so cal led) conclude that they are so much better than they, though differing from them in other smaller Matters. And let such Congregati ons, or Persons, that hold, maintain, connive at, or suffer these or such like Heresies, and He-reticks,

reticks, (we have named, and by our Arti cles have Opposed and Confuted) take heed lest such Doctrine do not in the end unchurch them, especially if they do not defend, and contend for the Orthodox Faith, by bearing a Testimony against such Hereticks, according to the Rule which St. Paul gives the Churches, in Titus 3. 10. to reform them.

And for any Persons to be so zealous as some seem, or pretend to be, in several Congregations, of some Duty contained in the second Table, and to slight, or make little Conscience of the Duties of the first Table, is very strange to Men of Conscience and Reason (notwithstanding it is the practice of such, as pretend to be Masters of Reason): for how can it be that such Persons can be good Christians, or have true love to Christ, that have Courage enough to speak, or act, when their own Persons, Estates, or Relations, are persecu-ted, or oppressed, or when some (n) Statute-
Law of Christ is broken, or misinterpreted
(though this is well), and their Duty, (especially the latter); and yet make no Conscience at all to oppose, or deal with them that do take away the King's (o) Dignity, Power, and Crown of Glory, or Blaspheme him by their Erroneous Opinions, or (p) Heresies? And yet these must be suffered, and connived at in Congregations, which we are sure, neither con-sisteth

In a word, if such Persons repent not, nor Congregations reform not, by purging out such Cankering Heresies, or Hereticks, we must conclude from God's Word, Right Reason, and Common Experience, that such things are the*

r) Rev. 2. 20, 21, 23, 24. sad (r) Prodroms of some sore and dismal Cloud of Judgments, that may sooner, or later, more, or less, (we have too much cause to fear) fall upon such Congregations, if they repent not.

And for such Persons, that through Pride, or Vain-Glory, do pretend to Singularity; in finding out new Doctrines, or Opinions, and in their Preachings, or Writings, charge the Orthodox with Plagiarism, because they speak the same Truths, Doctrine, or Principles, that the Orthodox Christians have taught, written, and delivered to us from Age to Age, according to the Analogie of Faith recorded in holy Scripture; let such glory still in this their Singularity. For our parts we do professe, and ingennously declare to all the World, that we are far off from assuming such Singularity; but rather have studied a Concord, or Unity, with our Fore-fathers, in the good Old Way of the Gospel; and have laboured to speak in the very same Words, or Language of Canaan, that our Fore-fathers, the Godly Saints spoke in; and do desire to walk in the Ancient Footsteps of the Flock of Christ, firmly believing in the same Gospel-Covenant, and Mediator, that Noah, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and the holy Apostles, &c. believed in, and were saved by, through Faith in Christ, there being no alteration of the Covenant of Grace (as we know of), neither Objectively, nor Subjectively, it being one and the same in Substance, from the Fall of Adam, to this Day. And so the Old and New Testaments, like the Faces of the Cherubims, look one towards another, holding forth but one (f) Mediator, and Way of Salvation by him, though revealed to us by sundry degrees, and in divers manners.

f) Viz. True God and true Man, united in one Person.

And if any Matter, we have now published, in these Fifty Articles, shall seem Noval, or Singular to any, being soberly weighed, and impartially considered by the Reader, it will appear, it is more by way of Explanation, and Accommodation, in order to a Union, than any new Matter, or Words: All the Articles being delivered in a plain and modest style, and in Scripture Language, fitted to the meanest Capacities, we not pretending to any Rhetorical, or Humane Eloquence in speaking, no farther forth than it serves to express the truth truth Intelligible to others. For Reason it self, as well as Tongues, or Humane Learning, ought to be subservient to the Mind of the Holy Ghost, or Divine Mysteries of Faith, revealed in Scripture; for we believe it, ex authoritate dicentis, relying upon the Truth of him that saith it, and not upon Reason: And all the Evidence which we get by Reason, is nothing to this Certitude. For if Reason should go before, like an Usher to make way to Faith in Divine Mysteries, we should never believe. In many Divine Truths, the Schoolmen say well, Rationes præcedentes minuunt fidem, sed Rationes subsequentes augent fidem: Reasons going before Faith weaken Faith, but Reasons coming after Faith strengthen it.

For Philosophy it self, though maintained by the successive force of the greatest Wits, yet is purblind, or dark-sighted, in Divine Mysteries, and evaporates into nothing, before Divine Revelation: but Christianity, attended by its own Authority, established its (t) Dominion, and raised an eternal Empire of Truth and Holiness in the World; yet the Reason of Man cannot inspire into its own productions, or principle of Life: for the Conversion of Men and Women to Christianity, was, and is, the effect of infinite Mercy, and equal Power; and the Simple, Plain, and Divine Truths truths of Jesus Christ in the Gospel, shall survive its uttermost Periods, maugre all its enemies, and greatest Opposition; although be in a showre of Blood, yet it shall thereby be made Fruitful: According to that true axiom, That the Blood of the Martyrs, is the seed of the Church. And by its everlasting Monuments, remain for ever, by its victorious permanent Efficacy. And though the Way of the Gospel be attended (especially the powerful profession of it) with some difficulty, yet remember what St. Chrysostom saith (u), Non aspicias aspera est via, sed attende quo ducit, nec considera quòd est arcta, sed ubi desinit: Regard thou not that the way to Life is streight, but mark whither it leadeth, and where it endeth. (w) Nemo potest hic gaudere cum seculo, & illic regnare cum Deo.—— No Man can have his full contentment and delight, both in this, and God's Kingdom. Consider Souls, (x) God's Tabernacle is in Salem, and his Dwelling-place is in Sion: How then shall we esteem of the (y) Truth, and Worship of God? and before to meet him where he hath promised his Presence, setting a low esteem of the Glory, and Grandure of this World, in its greatest Riches. Consider all true, and lasting Felicity, and Riches, are in Christ; and as (z) St. Bernard saith, O Lord Jesus, he that will not live to

For as the Godhead, or Divine Nature cannot Thirst, or be Hungry, no more can the Manhood be in all, or many places at once. Therefore we be-

For we ought not to oppose the Grace of God in Electing of us, nor yet the Grace of the Son in Dying for all Men (and so for us); nor yet the Grace of the Holy Ghost in propounding the Gospel, and persuading us to believe it (n): For until we do believe, the effects of God's displeasure are not taken from us; for the Wrath of God abideth on all them that do not believe in Christ (o); for the actual declaration in the Court of Conscience, is by Faith as an Instrument (p), (not for Faith as a Meriting Cause): for Christ is the Meriting Cause of eternal Life to all that believe, but not of God's Will to give eternal Life to them, nor yet of God's Decree to save us (q), albeit we are chosen in Christ before the Foundation of the World. is neceſſary as the way of our Salvation, as an Inſtrumental Cauſe (r): but the Active and Paſſive Obedience of Chriſt, is neceſſary as a Meriting Cauſe of our Salvation (ſ); therefore God's Eternal Decree doth not oppoſe his revealed Will in the Goſpel (t), it being but one, not two divers or contrary Wills. For his Decree as King, decreeth the Event, or what ſhall be done infallibly; but his Command as a Lawgiver (u), ſheweth not what ſhall be done, but what is the duty of Man to do, and leave undone: Therefore God hath (we believe) decreed, that Faith as the means, and Salvation as the end, ſhall be joyned together, that where one is, the other muſt be alſo (w): for it is written, He that believeth, ſhall be ſaved (x). Alſo, Believe in the Lord Jeſus Chriſt, and thou ſhalt be ſaved (y). Therefore we conclude, that a Man is Justified by Faith, without the deeds of the Law (t): for by Faith we receive that Righteousness that the Law, or the First Covenant, required of the first Adam; which Righteousness Christ hath fulfilled (in our Nature which he took of the Virgin Mary) by his Active Obedience (u), and is by God's free Donation, made over to us by Imputation (w), for he hath made him to us Wisdom, Righteousness, and Sanctification (x): For as by one Man's Disobedience, many were made Sinners, so by the Obedience of one (that is Christ) shall many be made Righteous. For Christ hath not only fulfilled the Sanction of the Law, (viz.) to love God with all his Heart, and his Neighbour as himself, but hath also voluntarily suffered the Curse of the Law, being made a Curse for us (y); that we might receive the Blessing of Abraham, and the Promise of the Spirit through Faith, in his Blood (z). And now, albeit the Essential Righteousness of Christ, as he is God equal with his Father, be not imputed unto us, nor yet his Personal Righteousness as he was, or is

Of Christ and his Mediatoral Office.

IT pleased God in his Eternal Purpose, to chuse, and ordain the Lord Jesus Christ, his only begotten Son, according to the Covenant made between them both (e), to be the alone Mediator between God and Man (f), (viz.) God the Father, who was by Adam's sin justly offended, and Adam (our common Parent) the person offending. Now in order to reconcile God to Man, and Man to God, who were at distance, Christ Jesus the Second Person in the Trinity, being very God, of the same Substance with his Father, ther, did, when the fulneſs of Time was come, take unto him Man's Nature, with all the Eſſential Properties, and common Infirmities, (Sin only excepted) being made of a Woman, of the Seed of Abraham (g), and David (b): And although he came from Adam, and had truly the Nature of Man, (yet not by Adam); and the Perſon of Chriſt, took our Nature into union with the Divine Nature, but he did not take the Perſon of Adam which ſinned (i); therefore we believe he was neither the Covenantee, nor yet the Covenanter, and ſo by conſequence, neither the Creditor, nor the Debtor. And being concerned by this Office or Appointment of the Father to make Peace (k), it plainly appears, that he is the only fit Mediator between God and Man (l), who is very God, and very Man; yet one Chriſt, who was Sanctified, and Anointed with the Holy Spirit above meaſure (m), and was Superlatively, and Admirably fitted for, and called unto this Office by his Father (n), who put all Judgment into his Hand, and Power to execute the ſame, and he willingly undertook the ſame; and being made under the Law, did perfectly fulfill or keep it, (o), and underwent the Puniſhment due to us, which

And God's Love is manifeſt to all Mankind, in that he is not willing, as himſelf has Sworn, and abundantly declared in his Word, that Mankind ſhould periſh eternally (i), but would have all to be Saved, and come to the knowledg of the Truth: And Chriſt died for all Men, and there is a ſufficiency in his Death and Merits for the Sins of the whole World (k), and hath appointed the Goſpel to be preached unto all (l); and hath ſent forth his Spirit to accompany the Word, in order to beget Repentance and Faith (m): So that if any do Periſh, it's not for want of the means of Grace manifeſted by Chriſt to them, but for the non-improvement of the Grace of God, offered freely to them through Chriſt in the Goſpel (n).

Of the Agreement between the Old and New Testaments.

THE Gospel, or New Covenant, was held forth, or preached to the Fathers, from Adam to Christ's coming in the Flesh (o), though it was revealed by sundry Degrees, and in divers Manners (p), in Types and Shadows, darkly (q); yet it was the same Gospel, the same Christ, the same Faith (for kind), and the very same Covenant, that they were justified and saved by, before Christ took Flesh of the Virgin, that we have now, and is to continue to the end of the World (r). For as the Church of the Jews in their Gospel Types had a Priest, and an Altar, and a Lamb, and a Fire, and without all these no Sacrifice could, or was accepted of God, then nor now, without Faith in the Antitype Christ, whose Humane Nature is the true Lamb, the Union of Natures, the High Priest, the Divine Nature, the Altar, and the Holy Ghost, the Heavenly Fire (s). And again, the Blood shed upon the Brazen Altar, may be applied to

And the Blood that was carried within the Vail, into the most Holy Place, is applied to our Glorification in Heaven (w). And as they had in their Church the Ark, a Figure of Christ's Presence; so have we the Promise of his Presence to the end of the World (x). And as they had the Tables of the Old Covenant, or Law, in the Ark; so have we the Law fulfilled by Christ (y); and meeting God in Christ, it's handed forth by Christ now to us (z), as the only Rule of our Sanctification, and Obedience, through his Grace. And as they had the Manna to nourish them in the Wilderness to Canaan; so have we the Sacraments to nourish us in the Church, and in our Wilderness-condition, till we come to Heaven. And as they had the Rod that Corrected them; so have we the Church-Censures now to Correct us (a), when we offend his Law. And their Burnt-offering may be applied to Christ, killing of Original Sin in us, and their Sin-offering may be applied to Christ killing, or taking away our Actual Sins; and their Peace-offering may be applied

Justification is a Declarative, or Judicial Sentence of God the Father (f), whereby he of his infinite Love, and most free Grace, for the alone and Mediateral Righteousness of his own Son, performed in our Nature and stead; which Righteousness of God-Man, the Father imputing to us (g), and by effectual Faith received and imbraced by us (h), doth free us by Judicial Sentence from Sin and Death, and accepts us Righteous in Christ our Surety, unto Eternal Life (i); the Active and Passive Obedience of Christ being the Accomplishment of all that Righteousness and Sufferings the Law, or Justice of God required (k); and this being perfectly performed by our Mediator, in the very Nature of us Men (l), and accepted by the Father in our stead (m), according to that eternal Covenant-Transaction, between the Father and Son (n). And hereby by we have a deliverance from the Guilt and Punishment of all our Sins, and are accounted Righteous before God, at the Throne of Grace, by the alone Righteousness of Christ the Mediator, imputed, or reckoned unto us through Faith; for we believe there are six necessary Causes of Man's Justification, or Salvation. (Viz.) First, The Efficient Cause of our Justification, is God's free Grace (o). Secondly, The Meritorious Cause is the Blood of Christ (p). Thirdly, The Material Cause is Christ's Active Obedience (q). Fourthly, The Imputation of Christ, his Obedience for us, is the Formal Cause (r). Fifthly, The Instrumental Cause is Faith (s). Sixthly, God's Glory and Man's Salvation, is the final Cause (t). Now we principally apply the first and last to God the Father, the second and third to Christ the Mediator, the fourth and fifth to the blessed Comforter, the Holy Ghost; hence it is we are Baptized in the Name of the Father, of the Son, and Holy Ghost (u), and so we worship a Trinity in Unity, and Unity in Trinity, 1 John 5. 7.

Of the right Subject and Administration of Holy Baptism.

BAptism is an Ordinance of the New Testament, ordained by Jesus Christ to be unto the Party Baptized, or Dipped, a Sign of our entrance into the Covenant of Grace, and ingrafting into Christ, and into the Body of Christ, which is his Church (t); And of Remission of Sin in the Blood of Christ (u), and of our Fellowship with Christ, in his Death and Resurrection, and of our living, or rising to newness of Life (w). And orderly none ought to be admitted into the Visible Church of Christ, without being first (x) Baptized (y); and those which do really profess Repentance towards God, and Faith in, and obedience to our Lord Jesus Christ, are the only proper Subjects of this Ordinance; according to our Lord's holy Institution, and Primitive Practice; and ought by the Minister, or Administrator, to be done in a solemn manner, in the Name of the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost (z), by Immersion or Dipping of the Person

Of the Invisible Catholick Church of Christ.

THere is one holy Catholick Church, consisting of, or made up of the whole number of the Elect; that have been, are, or shall be gathered, in one Body under Christ (c), the only Head thereof (d): Which Church is gathered by Special Grace, and the Powerful and Internal Work of the Spirit; and are effectually united unto Christ their Head, and can never fall away (e).

Of the Catholick Church as Visible.

NEvertheless, we believe the Visible Church of Christ on Earth, is made up of several distinct Congregations, which make up that one Catholick Church, or Mystical Body of Christ. And the Marks by which She is known to be the true Spouse Spouse of Christ, are these, viz. Where the Word of God is rightly Preached, and the Sacraments truly Administred, according to Christ's Institution, and the Practice of the Primitive Church (f); having Discipline and Government duly Executed by Ministers or Pastours of God's Appointing, and the Churches Election, that is a true constituted Church: to which Church (and not elsewhere) all Persons that seek for Eternal Life, should gladly joyn themselves (g). And although there may be many Errors in such a Visible Church, or Congregations, they being not Infallible, yet those Errors being not Fundamental, and the Church in the major, or Governing part, being not Guilty, she is not thereby unchurched; nevertheless She ought to detect those Errors (h), and to Reform, according to God's holy Word, and from such Visible Church, or Congregations, no Man ought by any pretence whatever, schismatically to separate (i).

Of Officers in the Church of Christ.

THe Visible Church of Christ, being compleatly Gathered and Organized, according to the Mind of Christ, consists of Officers and Members; and the Officers (appointed by Christ) to be chosen by his Church, for the peculiar Administration of Ordinances, and Execution of the Power and Duty Christ hath injoyned them to the end of the World; Are these three, (viz.) * Bishops (k), (or Messengers), and Elders (l), (or Pastours), and Deacons (m), (or Overseers of the Poor): and the Way appointed by Christ, for the calling of any Person fitted and gifted by the Holy Ghost, unto the Office of Bishop, or Messenger, in the Churches is, (viz.) That he be chosen thereunto by the common Suffrage of the Church (n), and solemnly set apart by Fasting and Prayer, with Imposition of Hands, by the Bishops of the same Function, ordinarily; and those Bishops so Ordained, have the Government of those Churches that had Suffrage in their Election (o), and no other ordinarily; as also to pteach the Word, or Gospel, to the World, (or Unbelievers) (p). And the particular Pastour, or Elder, in like manner is to be chosen by the common Suffrage of the particular Congregation, and ordained by the Bishop, or Messenger (q) God hath placed in the Church he hath charge of; and the Elder so ordained, is to watch over that particular Church; and he may not ministerially act in any other Church before he be sent (r), neither ought his Power, or Office, any way to infringe the Liberty, or due Power, or Office of his † Bishop (*), God being a God of Order (s), having ordained things most harmoniously, tending every way to Unity ‖. The Deacons are in like manner to be chosen by Election and Ordination, and are in their particular Congregations, to receive the Charity and free Benevolence of the People (t): and the Bishops and Elders so Chosen, and Ordained, to the Work of God (u), ought to be enabled and capacitated thereunto, by a sufficient and honourable Maintenance (w) of the People that chose them, answerable to the Dignity of their Places * and Charge committed to them, without which they cannot discharge their Duty (as they ought

In opposition to which, and such like Idolatry of Rome, many of our worthy and famous Ancients and renowned Protestants, lost their lives by Fire and Faggot (k) in England, whose Spirits (we hope) are now in Heaven, as worthy Martyrs and Witnesses of Christ, in bearing a faithful Testimony to this holy Ordinance of their Lord and Master. Neither may we admit of Consubstantiation, it being not consonant to God's Word. And in case of personal and private Trespasses between Party and Party, that the Member so offended, tell his Offence to his Brother (o) between them alone; and if he shall not hear him, to take one or two more; if he will not hear him then, to tell it unto the Church (p). Of the Three Creeds.

THE Three Creeds, (viz.) The Nicene Creed, Athanasius his Creed, and the Apostles Creed, (as they are commonly called) ought throughly to be received, and believed. For we believe they may be proved by most undoubted Authority of holy Scripture, and are necessary to be understood of all Christians; and to be instructed in the knowledg of them, by the Ministers of Christ, according to the Analogie of Faith, recorded in sacred Scriptures (upon which these Creeds are grounded), and Catechistically opened, and expounded in all Christian Families, for the edification of Young and Old; which might be a means to prevent Heresie in Doctrine, and Practice, these Creeds containing all things in a brief manner, that are necessary to be known, fundamentally, in order to our Salvation; to which end they may be considered, and better understood of all Men, we have here Printed them under their several Titles as followeth, (viz.)

The

The Apostles Creed.

I Believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of Heaven and Earth; and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord: Who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried, he descended into* Hell, the third Day he rose again from the Dead, he ascended into Heaven, and sitteth on the Right Hand of God the Father Almighty, from thence he shall come to judg the Quick and the Dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy Catholick Church; the Communion of Saints; the Forgiveness of Sins; the Resurrection of the Body, and the Life everlasting. Amen.

* Not that he (to wit) Christ went into the place of the Damned, but that he went absolutely unto the state of the Dead. See Dr. Usher, in his Body of Divinity, p. 174. and Mr. Perkins on the Creed.

The Nicene Creed.

WE believe in one God the Father Almighty, Maker of all things Visible, and Invisible; and in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of God, the only begotten Son of the Father, that is of the Substance of the Father, God of God, Light of Light, Very God of very God, Begotten, not made, being of one Substance with the Father, by whom all things were made, both the Things in Heaven, and the Things in Earth; Who for us Men, and for our Salvation, came down, and was Incarnate, he was made Man; he suffered, and rose the third Day, he ascended into the Heavens; He shall come to judge both the Quick and the Dead. And we believe in the Holy Ghost. Therefore they which say, there was a time when he was not, before he was begotten, or that he had his Beginning of nothing, or that he is of another Substance, or Essence; or that affirm the Son of God to be Made, or to be Convertible, or Mutable, these the Catholick and Apostolick Church of God, doth pronounce for Accursed.

A-ha-

WHosoever will be saved, before all things it is necessary that he hold the Catholick Faith.

Which Faith except every one do keep whole and undefiled, without doubt he shall perish everlastingly.

And the Catholick Faith is this, That we worship one God in Trinity, and Trinity in Unity. Neither confounding the Persons, nor dividing the Substance.

For there is one Person of the Father, another of the Son, and another of the Holy Ghost.

But the Godhead of the Father, of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost, is all one; the Glory equal, the Majesty Coeternal.

Such as the Father is, such is the Son, and such is the Holy Ghost.

The Father uncreate, the Son uncreate, and the Holy Ghost uncreate.

The Father Incomprehensible, the Son Incomprehensible, and the Holy Ghost Incomprehensible.

The Father Eternal, the Son Eternal, and the Holy Ghost Eternal; and yet they are not three Eternals, but one Eternal.

As also there are not three Incomprehensibles, henſibles, nor three Uncreated, but one Uncreated, and one Incomprehenſible.

So likewiſe the Father is Almighty, the Son Almighty, and the Holy Ghoſt Almighty; and yet they are not three Almighties, but one Almighty.

So the Father is God, the Son is God, and the Holy Ghoſt is God; and yet they are not three Gods, but one God.

So likewiſe the Father is Lord, the Son Lord, the Holy Ghoſt Lord; and yet not three Lords, but one Lord.

For like as we are compelled by the Chriſtian Verity, to acknowledg every Perſon by himſelf to be God and Lord. So are we forbidden by the Catholick Religion, to ſay there be three Gods, or three Lords.

The Father is Made of none, neither created, nor begotten. The Son is of the Father alone, not made, nor created, but begotten. The Holy Ghoſt is of the Father, and of the Son, neither made, nor created, nor begotten, but proceeding.

So there is one Father, not three Fathers; one Son, not three Sons; one Holy Ghoſt, not three Holy Ghoſts.

And in this Trinity, none is afore, or after other; none is greater, or leſs than another, but the whole three Perſons be Coeternal eternal together and Coequal; ſo that in all things, as is aforeſaid, the Unity in Trinity, and the Trinity in Unity, is to be worſhipped.

He therefore that will be ſaved, muſt thus think of the Trinity.

Furthermore, it is neceſſary to everlaſting Salvation, that he alſo believe rightly the Incarnation of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt.

For the right Faith is, that we believe and confeſs, that our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, the Son of God, is God and Man. God of the Subſtance of the Father, begotten before the Worlds: And Man of the ſubſtance of his Mother, Born in the World; perfect God, and perfect Man, of a reaſonable Soul, and Humane Fleſh ſubſiſting. Equal to the Father as touching his Godhead, and inferiour to the Father as touching his Manhood; who although he be God and Man, yet he is not two but one Chriſt. One not by converſion of the Godhead into Fleſh, but by taking of the Manhood into God. One altogether, not by confuſion of Subſtance, but by unity of Perſon: For as the reaſonable Soul and Fleſh is one Man, ſo God and Man is one Chriſt, who ſuffered for our Salvation, deſcended into Hell, roſe again the third

Day

Day from the Dead, he aſcended into Heaven, he ſitteth on the Right Hand of the Father God Almighty; from whence he ſhall come to judge the Quick and the Dead.

At whoſe coming all Men ſhall riſe again with their Bodies, and ſhall give account for their own Works. And they that have done good, ſhall go into Life everlaſting, and they that have done evil, into everlaſting Fire. This is the Catholick Faith, &c. Which, every one ſhould believe faithfully.

to take the Charge of their Families, and rule and govern them according to the Word of God, both Husbands, Parents, Masters, and all others concerned in any such Relation (b); and by their godly and religious Example, instruct their Families (c): they being found carefully keeping of the Sabbath-Day, in the holy and religious services of hearing the Word preached, with publick and private Prayer. As also requiring and instructing their Families and Relations, to follow their godly and religious Example, in the private and publick Exercises of Religion (d); and calling them to an account how they spend the Sabbath, and other times, and Mercies they injoy; Especially the reading of the Scriptures, and hearing the Word preached, with publick Prayer with them, and for them, in order to a Blessing for them, and their Families. The neglect of which Duty, or Power of Godliness, and Religion in Families, is one main cause of that wicked Atheism, and Impiety in the World and Families; and of the carnal Lukewarmness, and Ignorance in Churches, together with contempt of Government; because many Professors make so little account, or conscience of performing any duty at Home in their own Families (e).

Poſt-

Poſt-ſcripe.

Courteous Reader,

I Doubt not but that ſome of theſe things before premiſed in this Confeſſion of Faith, eſpecially thoſe Articles that relate to the Doctrine of the ever Bleſſed Trinity, and Juſtification by the Blood, Merits, and Satisfaction of Jeſus Chriſt our Saviour; Together with the Authority of the holy Scriptures, and that Godly Doctrine manifeſtly aſſerted in thoſe three Creeds we have publiſhed; all which Doctrine in part, or whole, will have little entertainment by ſome, and without queſtion great oppoſition from many, that do oppoſe the Church of England, and others alſo, as well as us, in theſe great Fundamental Truths, wherein we are all agreed, (viz.) The Doctrine of the Trinity, and Chriſt's Satisfaction to his Father's Juſtice, for ſinful Man. And no wonder there is ſuch Inſtruments, and Cunning Sophiſters abroad: For it's evident that Satan knows, that if the Foundations be deſtroyed, we ſhall be at a loſs; and what greater Foundation than

than that which is laid, even Jesus Christ, (viz.) The True Christ, God Man, or Immanuel, God with us. But St. Peter sheweth us, that some shall bring in such damnable Heresies into the World, in denying this true Object of Faith and Worship, and so worship and believe a meer Idol, and Invention of their own. And now altho these Articles be passed over with brevity, as some may judge, and yet happily others may, and will conclude they are too large, and have too much repetition in the Preface, &c. in many of them; which the Critical will call Tautollogies, &c. Let them if they please; yet the Sober and Intelligent, will conclude there is need of it, for the benefit of the Ignorant and meaner sort of People, for whose sakes it is written in a plain manner, for their Instruction, and as brief as it could for the benefit of the poorer sort, who cannot buy great Volumes.
